

San Francisco Atheists -- Winter Festivities

'Tis the season to be jolly, and we have comedy, music and parties aplenty this month. Our annual Winter Solstice Party is on Saturday December 17, 6:30 pm., in SF's Cow Hollow neighborhood (Marina District). We're offering appetizers, a full dinner buffet, desserts, beer & wine. Live music provided by Joey Fabian's 'The Skeptic's Jukebox' playing secular tunes.

$25 for adults, $10 for children under 12. Please purchase tickets in advance (with a credit card) through Eventbrite. You will be provided with the address when you RSVP. You can also pay cash at the door-- please RSVP to larry.kaufman@yahoo.com by 12/11 if paying cash.

Food, drink & venue are being donated, so all proceeds go to San Francisco Atheists, to provide you with great programs in 2012. Please join us in celebrating the season of reason, and warm up the long dark night in great company.

Parking in this neighborhood can be difficult-- please consider carpooling or public transportation. Venue can be reached by Muni buses #30 or 45 (from BART) and #22. Look for street parking south of Union and west of Scott.

Ho ho ho with the Ha Ha Heathens on Tuesday December 6, 8 pm at the Punchline Comedy Club. Our favorite local atheist comedian Keith Lowell Jensen and his team provide a night of godless holiday humor. Tickets $15.

Info at <http://www.punchlinecomedyclub.com/event/1C004751D40F68AB>

"Funny songs about ignorance, war and greed" from local leftist/humanist/satirist musician Roy Zimmerman, making several Bay Area appearances. Roy plays San Francisco on Sunday December 11, 7 pm, at the Unitarian Universalist Center. Tickets $15. For details and concert schedule, see <http://www.royzimmerman.com/schedule.html>