

San Francisco Atheists

Join us this Saturday for a presentation from a member who in recent years has become a familiar face at Bay Area atheist meetings and events, and who hosts perhaps one of the most dynamic pages on Facebook. Every atheist has a story, but this one has some unique twists and turns. "Rudy Ruddell will tell the story of how he raised himself from the muck of two childhood fundamental Christian indoctrinations to become a teenage atheist, a Moonie, an atheist Catholic and then an anti-theist Facebook 'icon'. He is currently a high school teacher in Hayward, CA. He holds a B.S. in Political Economy of Natural Resources from U.C. Berkeley and an M.B.A from Cal Poly, SLO. He is married to an Italian Catholic and has two atheist (yay!) boys ages 24 and 21."

We are pleased to feature Rudy's talk at our monthly meeting:

Saturday January 28, at Schroeder's Restaurant (rear dining room)
240 Front St. (near Sacramento St.)

Meet to socialize/eat/drink at 4:30 pm; program will begin around 5 pm.

Free-- donations are welcome.

Near the Embarcadero BART and MUNI station. Parking is available on the street or at the nearby Embarcadero Center.

We are seeking volunteers to help San Francisco Atheists.

~We need a technically talented person/people who can help us do the following:

-Maintain our website (using Microsoft Expression Web)

-Manage our Google mailing list

-Help us generate a monthly newsletter

~We also need folks who can help with meetings and events (getting supplies, setting up, introductions, collection, etc.) This should be someone who regularly attends monthly SFA meetings.

~And someone to help manage our Facebook page and our involvement in Meetup.

Have other skills, ideas, suggestions? Please drop us note at info@sfatheists.com
