

San Francisco Atheists

The days are short and nights are long-- more time for us to party! To celebrate another trip around the sun, we are gathering for our annual Winter Solstice Celebration! Please join us for fine food and spirits (the liquid kind) in a warm and beautiful home in the good company of your fellow heathens. Please RSVP and purchase tickets in advance through Eventbrite.

Saturday December 14

7:00 - 10:00 pm

The historic Bowman House in the Marina District of SF (address is on the Eventbrite site).

Adults $20, children $10, includes dinner, dessert, and drinks.

Street parking-- best availability is south of Union St. and west of Scott St.

Near MUNI lines 22, 43, and 45.

This Tuesday-- Ha Ha Heathens Atheist Christmas returns to the Punchline with our friend Keith Lowell Jensen and his blasphemous buddies.

Tuesday December 10, 8:00 pm, Punchline Comedy Club, 444 Battery St., tickets $15. Details here.

Important venue update: Schroeder's Restaurant will be closing for a few months for renovations. Our January 25 and February 22 meetings will take place in an alternate venue. Stay tuned for updates!

And we thank you all for another great year!
