

San Francisco Atheists

August-oberfest? Okay, we're a little early, but it's a holiday weekend, so we are celebrating with an evening at Schroeder's, former long-time home of SFA monthly meetings and events. Join us this Saturday in the stunningly renovated beer hall for a look at the new digs and a taste of the new menu. Don't worry, the dead animal heads and monk murals are still on the walls, but no more rickety chairs or sticky tables. No formal program, just steins of good beer (or wine/cocktails) and pretzels with a side of conversation.

Saturday August 30

5pm - 8 pm

Schroeder's Restaurant

240 Front St. (near Sacramento St.)

We will be at one of the big communal tables in the front of the restaurant-- ask staff to show you the way.

Near the Embarcadero Muni/BART station.

Parking at the nearby Embarcadero Center garage or at street meters.

Drivers be aware of Caltrans freeway closures this weekend.