

San Francisco Atheists

This month we welcome local humanist celebrant Terry Plank to lead us in a presentation and discussion of The Humanist Society, The Clergy Project, and secular celebration.

Terry is the president of the board of directors of The Clergy Project, a community for religious professionals who no longer hold supernatural beliefs. He is on the board of directors of The Humanist Society, which provides training for Humanist Celebrants to officiate at weddings, funerals, and other life-cycle events. At Weddings by the Sea, Terry has married over 2,000 couples in over 30 years as an officiant and celebrant.

A former Christian pastor, Terry has earned Masters degrees in Divinity, and later, in Counseling, and also worked as a Marriage & Family Therapist.

Saturday March 28

5:30-7:00 pm (doors open at 5 pm)

Club Quarters Hotel, Niantic meeting room, lower level

424 Clay Street, near Battery

Take the lobby elevator down to LL

Near the Embarcadero Muni/BART station

Free, cash donations always welcome.

Parking available at the nearby Embarcadero Center lot and at streets meters.

After the meeting, you're welcome to join us at the nearby Irish Times Pub for suds & grub!