

San Francisco Atheists

We are excited to welcome Chris Johnson to premiere his new documentary film, A Better Life: An Exploration of Joy & Meaning in a World Without God.

"There is no God. Now what? If this is the only life we have, how does that affect how we live our lives, how we treat each other, and cope with death. In this fascinating documentary, Chris explores issues of joy & meaning and travels around the globe meeting people from all walks of life and backgrounds who challenge the false stereotypes of atheists as immoral and evil. From Daniel Dennett and A.C. Grayling, to Julia Sweeney and Robert Llewellyn —learn the various ways many atheists have left religion to a better life filled with love, compassion, hope, and wonder!"

Chris Johnson is a New York-based photographer and filmmaker. He received his undergraduate degree in film production (along with a minor in religious studies) from Concordia University in Montreal, Quebec. His photography has been seen in various outlets, including The New York Times. He has spent the last three years working on A Better Life, traveling across the United States, Canada, the UK, Ireland, and other countries.

Chris will present his film, followed by Q&A.
